

OFFICE OF THE NATIONAL CONVENOR - TES

Report of National Consultation held on 11th August 2022 (10.0 am – 2.00 pm)

Name of Convenor: Mr. Dennis Appiah Larbi-Ampofo (student leader) & Dr. Michael Boakye-Yiadom (National Convenor)

Country: Ghana

Type of Consultation: National

Location: Virtual

Number participants: 186

Regional Representation: All 16 regions were represented.

Language used

English and other local languages

Sector representation

Students, members of youth groups, persons with disabilities, representatives from rural farming and fishing communities; the private sector, gender advocates; the development partners; reps from both tertiary and pre-tertiary school; artisans; the unemployed; media; prisoners enrolled in educational institutions; traders; and representatives from government agencies and ministries

Principles of Engagement

- a. Introduction to the Transforming Education Summit
- b. Contextualization of the Transforming Education Summit
- c. Statements from development partners, Minister for Education
- d. Voices of representatives of identifiable groups
- e. Open forum
- f. Plenary session and synthesis of issues raised by participants
- g. Thoughts and reflections led to an overwhelming support of selecting thematic action track 2 and using the other 4 tracks as supporting pillars.
- h. Official declaration of Ghana's leading thematic action track by Minister for Education
- i. The 4th National Consultation Meeting ended with participants excited about Ghana's support for Track 2 (Learning and skills for life, work and sustainable development) as the leading track for Ghana's transforming education agenda.

MICHAEL BOAKYE-YIADOM, PH.D.
TES NATIONAL CONVENOR